

Mahidol Jazz Orchestra

The Mahidol Jazz Orchestra (MJO) was initially formed in 2003 by jazz studies students at Mahidol conducted and directed by Dr. Joseph Bowman and an advice of Dr. Gene Aitken. Its first public debut was in 2004 at the auditorium of Siam Motors Building – a home of Siam Music Yamaha Co., Ltd. MJO continuously develops its performing skills with various leading conductors including Shuichi Komiyama, David Hart, Udo Van Boven, and Hashem Assadullahi.

In 2007, MJO has been honoured to perform at Chiayi Music Festival 2007-2008, Taiwan ROC and, recently, participated in the First Thailand Jazz Conference 2009. MJO plays a multitude genre of jazz – Standard, Latin, Vocal, Fusion, as well as the classical style of Symphonic Band. Its repertoire embraces compositions from world-class jazz composers – for instance, Gordon Goodwin, Maria Schneider, Bob Mintzer, Bub Curnow, and Mark Tylor. MJO is currently directed by Taweesak Booranapanitpan, Annawin Kerdteesud, and Sarit Tanpensuk.

Directed by

Taweesak Booranapanitpan, Annawin Kerdteesud, Sarit Tanpensuk

Pongstorn Chirawatpongsa	Alto & Soprano Saxophone	Thanapoom Sriwiset	Bass Trombone
Asawin Ingpochai	Alto Saxophone	Keerata Prachagool	Guitar
Chanin Thamrujikul	Tenor Saxophone	Issarawoot Baison	Guitar
Pooh Preugpaibul	Tenor Saxophone	Kevin Inthawong	Piano
Anik Sangpradub	Baritone Saxophone	Nohn Intaranan	Piano
Watchara Atchariyavaranon	Trumpet	Siwanat Suvanawat	Bass
Arkaradeth Sarn-In	Trumpet	Phoowich Tawasinchanadesh	Bass
Trin Suebpa	Trumpet	Pong Nakornchai	Drums & Percussion
Pongporn Kelyordjun	Trumpet	Atiwat Wiboonwitayanan	Drums & Percussion
Kittipitch Pakdee	Trumpet	Aphiwich Khamfoo	Drums & Percussion
Kiattipat Singruang	Trombone
Khwanpol Muangmud	Trombone
Narongdej Sutiprinyanon	Trombone		