

Mansri

แมนศิริ

Mansri is a jazz group comprising of four members who have been together for nine years. The group's four core members are educators and performers of the jazz medium who come from four different backgrounds and experiences. It is a meeting of four different souls hence, the name Mansri - a well known intersection in Bangkok. In its brief history, the group has been involved with the Jazz Heure project - a tour of the various campuses in Thailand by the group along with students from the faculty of jazz Silpakorn University; and various performances of original compositions and selected tunes from the Yellow Jackets, a personal favorite of the group's members.
